SPEAKER: Ernest Mathias

A refugee who emigrated from Germany to China with his parents and maternal grandparents in 1939, and lived there until 1947. This presentation consists of a gripping one hour professional video entitled "THE LAST REFUGE", with original footage depicting the harsh living conditions and struggles Jews had to endure in Shanghai. This is followed by a Q&A.

Like many untold stories in the history of mankind, the story of the Shanghai Jewish Refugees has its unique significance, which, in this film is revealed by the survivors' first-hand accounts, scholarly analysis, and valuable historical stock footage.
